

Do you have prayer requests to share? Please post your prayer needs on our website, at www.facebook.com/groups/HTCCprayergroup, or text/email Pastor Brice directly at 937.626.5134 or revbrice@gmail.com.

Pastor Brice is hosting Zoom prayer meetings at 6:00 pm nightly. Click on the Zoom link on the worship page to connect.

If you need financial assistance during this health crisis; specifically for medicine, food or emergency needs, the Care and Finance Ministry Teams have set aside limited funds for supporting the short-term needs of our congregation. An application for requesting funds is on our website: www.htccnashville.com/benevolence.

The Vestry has also activated a phone tree to check in with you throughout the week. Please update your contact information online: www.htccnashville.com/update.

Remember these specific needs in your prayers today!

Prayers for the family of George Floyd, for all those involved in the protests and that eyes will be open to the injustices and racism in our system and in our country.

Terry Smith: A friend of mine is very sick and his cancer has spread. The Dr. is stopping all chemo and making him comfortable. Please pray for Jay that his journey to heaven is painless.

Angela Ford: Please pray for Kaiden's grandfather. He has an appointment on Monday to make sure he is still cancer free.

Brice Thomas: Please pray for my mom and dad (Jean and Harold) and their health. Their church has opened up fully and someone was diagnosed with Covid. Please pray that they will make good decisions with their health.

Wesley King's family: My mom is being tested for Covid, prayers that she doesn't have it, but quick healing if she does. Jacob, my brother is in a custody battle. Just general prayers for my family as they go through a lot right now.

Lee Glover: I just want us to all pray for PEACE for our world .. Times are hard and I find that some days are harder than others.

Cat Henneberry: My sister Linda, was let go from her job and is starting a new work at home job. Please pray that this is the answer she has been looking for. Also, for friends and family of Donovan Green who amidst the pandemic, lost his father to a heart attack. Pray for the family as they go through this time.

Amanda Jo Carter-Durham: Please pray for the issues she is having at work. Pray that they will resolve.

Bob Lutey: My friend Joanne has pancreatic cancer. They can't do surgery right now and now they think it may have spread. Please pray for the correct treatment and healing!

Alan Strickler: I was diagnosed with prostate cancer and he will be starting chemo. Please pray that the chemo will not make him sick and that it will work for his cancer. Thank you!

David Smith: Has had knee surgery. Pray for him as he heals and that he can regain full use of his knee.

Deborah Redmon: Please pray for Pam and Troy. Pray that God will bring healing to this relationship.

Angela Poteete: Michael was denied for compassionate release. We will move on to plan b and not give up. Please pray for Michael, the conditions inside are very inhumane and his biggest struggle is not hearing from or seeing his family. Pray for all the kids, that they will be safe through all of this.

The prayer of many is for things to return to normal soon. The financial issues are mounting and people are starting to really feel the stress of being stuck at home. Many are feeling down and trying to escape the lonely feeling. Reach out to someone today and check on them!
