The Vestry has also activated a phone tree to check in with you throughout the week. Please update your contact information online: www.htccnashville.com/update.

Remember these specific needs in your prayers today!

Prayers for the family of George Floyd, for all those involved in the protests and that eyes will be open to the injustices and racism in our system and in our country.

Alan Strickler: First treatment is done. Everything went great, white blood cells and immune system doing well. Five more rounds and then shots. Please continue to pray for my health.

Betty Lee: She is doing well but she did have a basal cell removed from her ear this past week. Please pray that she heals up and continues feeling good.

Terry Smith: A friend of mine is very sick and his cancer has spread. The Dr. is stopping all chemo and making him comfortable. Please pray for Jay that his journey to heaven is painless.

Brice Thomas: Please pray for my mom and dad (Jean and Harold) and their health. Their church has opened up fully and someone was diagnosed with Covid. Please pray that they will make good decisions with their health.

Wesley King's family: My mom is being tested for Covid, prayers that she doesn't have it, but quick healing if she does. Jacob, my brother is in a custody battle. Just general prayers for my family as they go through a lot right now.

Cat Henneberry: My sister Linda, was let go from her job and is starting a new work at home job. Please pray that this is the answer she has been looking for. Also, for friends and family of Donovan Green who amidst the pandemic, lost his father to a heart attack. Pray for the family as they go through this time.

Bob Lutey: My friend Joanne has pancreatic cancer. They can't do surgery right now and now they think it may have spread. Please pray for the correct treatment and healing!

Deborah Redmon: Please pray for Pam and Troy. Pray that God will bring healing to this relationship.

Angela Poteete: Michael was denied for compassionate release. We will move on to plan b and not give up. PRAISE, communication is back open again except on weekends. He is up for camp as long as the counselor does his job. He was camp eligible on Jan and the counselor is notorious for just letting things pass. Prayers for peace for Michael please.

The prayer of many is for things to return to normal soon. The financial issues are mounting and people are starting to really feel the stress of being stuck at home. Many are feeling down and trying to escape the lonely feeling. Reach out to someone today and check on them!
